HONGKONG, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1904.

THE KING.
To-day King Edward VII entered upon the sixty-third year of his life—a life that has, in its latter stages, been remarkable for the manner in which it has been utilised, not alone in the interests of the British Empire, but in the interests of the whole world. In every land that is British, and in every portion of the globe where there is a British Embassy or Consulate there will be rejoicing of the most genuine kind to-day. There always has been rejoicing of a type on this occasion, but this year it will be participated in with more earnestness than has been heretofore manifested by people who are not of British origin or British subjects. King Edward's fine personality and brilliant statesmanship have been used and exhibited to such good effect that he has earned in his obvious desire for 'peace on earth and good-will towards men,' the admiration and the reverence of nations who have previously only been courteous towards us because it paid them so to be. Congratulations that have in the past emanated from these powers have been expressed simply because the comity of nations demanded it, but this year, more than in all others, they will be tinged with a sincere friendliness that has developed solely under the warm influence of the King's vast kindness and his keen understanding and perception of men and things. The policy of his Majesty during the past few years has done more to foster and accomplish the aims of those who strive after the brotherhood of man and the consolidation of nations than all the stump oratory and political manoeuvring could possibly achieve in a century. As Edward the Peacemaker has worked upon the Continental nations a spell that has been productive of most beneficent results. Had it not been for his potent sympathy and astute judgment the probabilities are that the British nation would this very day have been writhing in the throes of bloody conflict. Instead we find our statesmen peacefully endeavouring to wipe away a recent grievous insult, that at other times would have been accepted as an undoubted casus belli, by the means and methods that it is hoped will develop with the years and entirely supersede the unholy bloodshed and sacrifices of war that have been in the past, and are now being, used to bring antagonistic powers to an understanding. Arbitration should be the most lethal weapon in the hands of civilised nations, and, no doubt, when the penetrating rays of wisdom, tinctured with humanity and Christianity, shine unobscured upon those who now look to shot and shell and bayonets to settle differences, they will realise the barbaric crudeness and folly of it all. 'Rash, fruitless war, from wanton glory waged, is only,' after all, 'splendid murder,' and had that been recognised even by the Tsar—who only recently posed as a peace-wisher, but who is now a peace-breaker of the most irresponsible type—we would not have been witnesses of the shocking carnage that is at present proceeding in the north. King Edward shows his desire for continued and permanent Christian peace in a manner far different from that adopted by the Tsar. That unlucky monarch used words—and empty words at that—while the King of England has signified his hope and ambition by deeds. The method of dispelling our difference with Russia is, we trust, the first step in the direction of permanently reconciling matters of life and death by arbitration, and the result of the tribunal about to sit in Paris will go far towards demonstrating whether or not it will be feasible to have all future delicate international misunderstandings adjusted in like manner. We hope it will, and we feel sure similar hopes will find room in the breasts of every other peace-loving person, and every opponent of this vast armed peace, in the world. For what he has done towards bringing about such a consummation, if for nothing else, other nations will reverence the King, and on this day, above all others, they will feel disposed to join with all Britishers in wishing him continued health and long life.

LOCAL AND COAST NEWS.
Fire on the 'Wong.'
At about 8 o'clock last night a fire broke out in one of the cabins on board the Wong, and quickly spread through the port holes to the awnings above. The flames rose high and there was every promise of a large conflagration. The crew, however, set to work and in less than ten minutes the flames were subdued. The damage wrought was only slight, the awnings, spars and the interior of one cabin being damaged. The Fire Boat arrived after the fire was extinguished.

Masonia.

Military Lodge for the ensuing year are appointed on November 5 and are as follows:—Right Wor. Master Bro. F. East;

A. Cesar; Director of Ceremonies, Wor.
Bro. F. Howell; Stewards, Bro. W. J. J.
Gask and C. H. Parkinson; Junior Guard, Bro. G. W. Coysh; Tyler, Bro. J. Vanstone.

GENERAL NEWS.
The death is announced in Japan of Mr John Hollingshead, the well-known writer.
Mr Kuhn, charged with assault, has been released from the Negishi prison on bail of yen 3,000.
It is firmly stated in Japan that the scheme for the registration of trade marks has not been postponed.

The Kishu Railway Co. pays a dividend for the past half-year at the rate of 8 percent per annum, and has decided to increase its capital by 1,500,000 yen.
Mr W. Richmond Smith, who is with the Port Arthur army, has written to General Nicholson, speaking in the highest terms of the treatment accorded to the foreign war correspondents with General Nogai's force.

Arms for China.
The Sincinpaos states that Messrs L.
Spinal & Co., of Shanghai, have sent in a proposal to the Chinese authorities that they will undertake to raise a loan amounting to five million taels in order to establish an arsenal for the Chinese Government for manufacturing rifles, guns and ammunition with the most modern machinery. Again the same foreign firm has stated that as the firm has a stock of Mauser rifles of the most modern type of German make, if any of the provincial government wishes to buy the same the firm can supply the same within seven weeks. The loan can be arranged at six percent interest per annum without any other conditions. However the Chinese authorities are not taking the proposal up as the same is too good and the proposal is very suspicious.

The Stage in Germany.
The performance of The Dead Lion, a new play by the well-known German dramatist, Oscar Blumenthal, which was to have been brought out at the Berliner during the coming winter, has just been prohibited by Herr von Bismarck, the Head of the Berlin police, on the ground of its unmistakable representation of certain events of contemporary history. The play turns on the scaffold during the Fourteenth Century, between a young and impulsive Spanish monarch and his aged and powerful minister. The author, however, admits that the occurrences which took place before and after Bismarck's resignation have supplied him with material for his drama. The whole German Press expressed surprise at this 'intolerance in thought and feelings' on the part of the police authorities.

Tall persons are said to live longer than short ones.
Women are employed as bricklayers in Finland.
The ear is very sensitive to atmospheric changes.

CHILDREN LIKE TO TAKE IT.
The finest quality of granulated sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the result used in its preparation gives it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Children like to take it and it is no injurious after effect. It always cures.

Three More Volunteer Cruisers Pass Out.
LONDON, November 8.
Three more Volunteer Cruisers, besides the Voronezh have passed through the Bosphorus.

[According to Brassey's Naval Annual there is no mention of a vessel named Voronezh in the Volunteer Fleet of Russia.
There is, however, a vessel named the Voronezh, which is probably identical with the Voronezh. She is a vessel of 10,000 tons displacement, with an indicated horse power of 12,000, giving a speed of 12 knots.
She was built at Dumbarton in 1895 and is 440 feet long, 49 ft. 6 in. in beam and has a draught of 25 feet.—E.N. C.H.]

[MANILA CABLE NEWS SERVICE.]
The Fighting Near Mukden.
SAN FRANCISCO, November 2.
Field Marshal Oyama is proceeding on Mukden with renewed determination and Kuropatkin's position is daily becoming more precarious.
The continuous mauling and fighting of the recent campaign has told severely on both armies. Physical endurance has been pushed to the limit and many of the troops have become inefficient under the long strain.
To relieve the present strain of the situation, sixty thousand Japanese troops have just arrived and have been distributed to relieve those who need rest and hospital treatment.
The arrival of these troops will give the Japanese forces an advantage at this time that will probably result in a still severer punishment of the Russian forces.
The Russians are gradually falling back toward Mukden where the next great battle will probably take place.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 3.
There is complete quietude along this line south of Mukden.
Sixty thousand fresh Japanese troops have been displaced as many who had yielded to the hardships of the recent campaign.
Many of those considered unfit for further service recently have so far recuperated by the prolonged rest that they will be able to rejoin their comrades within the week.
It is reported that the Russians have also been materially reinforced and the next battle will doubtless exceed any of the previous series.

A Russian outpost at Ribbing, a pass in the Sungari mountains has been captured by the Japanese after several hours' hard fighting, in which each side lost heavily.
The scene of the struggle is near the head waters of the Shabo river, about twenty miles east of the town of name.
Elsewhere comparative quiet has prevailed since active hostilities were interrupted by rain more than a week ago.
It is reported on what appears to be good authority that the Russian forces have been augmented materially since the last engagement at Shabo.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 3.—Many points of the inner girdle of Port Arthur's defences are still at the mercy of the Japanese guns.
General Stoesel and his garrison appear reduced to desperate straits and it does not appear to be within the range of human probability that the stronghold will attempt to continue the desperate struggle a week longer.
The hope at St. Petersburg that the garrison would hold out till spring has practically been abandoned and its fall is expected.
There is no possibility of help from the landward side, and the close blockade of the entrance almost precludes the possibility of supplies or ammunition passing the Japanese.
The army with which the Japanese have exercised every possible ingenuity in an attempt to reduce Port Arthur on the anniversary of the Mikado's birthday, November 3.

THE BOMBARDMENT CON-TINUES.
General Stoesel Wounded.
SAN FRANCISCO, November 4.
The furious bombardment continues at Port Arthur and the garrison can no rest, night or day.
The East Ridge Forts have fallen into the hands of the Japanese. If the Japanese are able to hold this it will bring the fall of the fort measurably nearer.
When the Japanese swarmed into the East Ridge forts to day several mines were exploded by the Russians; almost destroying the ranks of the invaders, and withstanding this dreadful havoc, all efforts of the inner garrison to dislodge the Japanese have proved futile.
St. Petersburg feels greatly encouraged over the fact that the fort without the dangers were inspired by the Japanese national holiday and express the belief that the garrison will hold out till spring.

The Japanese claim that the coal and water supplies are short in the besieged city, and that the ammunition of its garrison will soon be exhausted.
As a result of the desperate assault on Port Arthur on November 3, General Stoesel was seriously wounded, the attack of investment terribly cut up, and loss on that day being estimated at not less than five per cent of the Japanese force.

During the awful charge up East Ridge, last night again, the Japanese were mowed down by the iron projectiles fired point blank into the charging ranks.
When the most important fort was finally carried by storm, a number of mines were exploded that sent death and destruction into the ranks of the invaders.
During the most desperate attempt of the Japanese, General Stoesel made the circumstances of the battle encouraging his command in the heroic defence.
After the taking of the hill forts, the Japanese fire became more effective and several forts heretofore sheltered from the enemies' shells were raked by a hail of shells. A shell burst within a few feet of General Stoesel, and he was carried from the spot, seriously injured.
The Russians are determined to fight to the bitter end. It is estimated that already the dead and wounded and those rendered ineffectual amount to at least fifty per cent. of the original garrison, thus leaving less than ten thousand to make the stand against one hundred thousand Japanese.

A Soldier Spy.
The war correspondent of the Nippon, in the course of a letter to his paper, says that after the execution of the Russian spy, Vassili Liaboff, at Yantai on September 30th one of the Japanese staff officers on the field sent a message to the Russian Army, to the following effect:
"Vassili Liaboff, 33 years old, a private in the Chukashki 297th Regiment, disguised as a Chinese farmer, was captured by our Army on September 28th. He confessed to the fact that he had volunteered his services and had been dispatched to within our picket line in order to ascertain the movements and dispositions of our Army. After trial by court-martial, he was sentenced to death, and was executed on the 30th. In communicating this incident to your Army, we cannot but express the wish that your Army may possess many soldiers as worthy and honourable as was this Liaboff. Prior to the execution when asked if he had nothing to say, he replied that he had nothing to say, as he was dying for the Tsar, his country and his religion. He was then told that his parents and his wife would be informed of his heroic death, and was asked if he had any thing more to communicate to them. He again replied to the contrary, and added that he was not able to sufficiently express his gratitude to us. At the same time he could not refrain from weeping. Asking our permission, he crossed himself and knelt down and prayed in silence. All present were deeply affected. Our sympathy for this ideal soldier, in whom were embodied such loyal and grand thoughts, was inexpressible."

How Despatches Were Carried.
Petit Parisien publishes the following from St. Petersburg:—"General Stoesel's message which reached here on October 5 had been entrusted to three officers, each of whom carried a copy written on flimsy paper, so that he might swallow it if captured. Two of these messengers were captured by the Japanese, who, however, did not succeed in obtaining copies of the message.
General Stoesel's Despatch contained some confidential information about the situation at Port Arthur, which will not be published."

The Defence of Vladivostok.
An Order of the Day addressed to the Vladivostok Garrison by Admiral Alexieff declares the works undertaken since the beginning of the war for strengthening the defences of the fortress to have been successfully carried out. "These works," the Order continues, "have been pushed on with indefatigable energy and zeal by every member of the garrison. Taking into consideration that the greater part of the work was carried on under bad climatic conditions, the success which has attended it testifies to their absolute devotion and self-sacrifice."

"I have found the garrison of the fortress to be in a perfect state of efficiency. I consider it an agreeable duty to express my deep gratitude to General Alexieff, commanding the Military District of the Amur, and to tender my sincere thanks to General Varma, the Commandant of the fortress of Vladivostok, as well as to all the officers, non-commissioned officers, and men of the land and sea forces composing the garrison, who have taken part in the construction of the works intended to strengthen the defences of the fortress."

INTERPORT CRICKET.

Arrival of the Shanghai Team.
The Shanghai team to do battle with Hongkong and the Straits chose an appropriate day to arrive in Hongkong, for all the ships in the harbour were in gala costume, as though welcoming the cricketers. Originally it was intended that the team should travel by the Prinzess Alice, which arrived on Monday but these arrangements were altered and it was decided to travel by the Manila.
Two members of the team, Messrs W. H. and A. J. Moulle, came down by the German steamer, while the remaining ten men landed this morning.
The Manila was met by a launch, flying the Red and White flag of the Shanghai Club, and the well-known Hongkong colours. Mr A. R. Lowe, the Secretary of the Hongkong Club, accompanied by several others, Messrs R. and H. Hancock, welcomed the visiting cricketers and conducted them to the Hongkong Club.
The team is as follows:—F. W. Potter (Capt.), Ins. J. U. Drummond, G. O. Den-more, O. V. Lanning, V. H. Lanning, W. H. Moulle, H. R. Parker, G. O. Den-more, W. J. Turnbull, S. Wallace, T. Wallace, A. J. Moulle (reserve), J. Bayden (scorer).
Mr A. W. Walkinshaw, who was expected to arrive to act as umpire for the Shanghai team, failed to put in an appearance, and it is probable that a local umpire will have to be chosen.
This afternoon the visiting team will be on the cricket ground and will have a little practice at the nets.
The Straits eleven are not expected to arrive before 9 p.m. to-day.
A match stand is being erected on the ground in which refreshments and cold drinks will be obtainable during the Inter-port matches. It is under the supervision of Mr Wm. Farmer.

HONGKONG BOAT CLUB.

Annual Meeting.
The Hongkong Boat Club held their annual general meeting at the Clubhouse, Kowloon, yesterday afternoon. The chair was filled by the Hon. F. H. May, C.M.G., and there were a good number present.
The Club was in a strong financial position, for the report showed a credit balance of $3428.90, while the Club's boats were also in good order. The "Age" numbers: 17 boats of all descriptions, from four-oared racing craft to a dingy, and two new boats are being constructed—a pair-oared and a double-screw. The question of amalgamation with the Royal Hongkong Yacht Club was referred to, and the sub-committee, appointed to consider the project, reported that the proposals would be ready to place before a general meeting shortly.

During the last season the club's events were very successful. At the last Victoria Recreation Club Regatta the Boat Club's cruisers were successful in winning both the events they entered for, viz., the International Ladies' Prize and the Challenge Cup.
The Cup was thus won twice in succession by the Club's crew. At the Canton Regatta the Boat Club again won the "Double" appropriating the Interport Race and the Sculling Race.
The following officers were elected for 1904-5:—President: Hon. F. H. May (re-elected).
Hon. Secretary: Mr E. W. Carpenter (re-elected).
Hon. Treasurer: Mr C. H. Benson (re-elected).
Rowing Captain: Mr W. O. Koehler.
Committee: Messrs E. W. Carpenter, G. A. Gale, F. W. Warr, W. O. Koehler,
A. B. Rouse and C. H. Benson.

Russia to Fight England.
The following telegram appears in some of the Japan papers: London, 2nd October.—A sensation has been created here by certain remarks concerning Anglo-Russian relations, attributed to Sir Walter Lawrence, private secretary to Lord Curzon. He was staying at a country house, quite recently, when he allegedly dinner party by hosting that without doubt, there would be a war between England and Russia next spring.
It is not only his private opinion, but also that of Lord Curzon, that all the officials in India, and his estate, that many big guns were being sent out there, and India all the time, and every preparation was being made for a long campaign.

A SURE REMEDY may be quickly cured by applying Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. If this remedy is taken at the first appearance of a cold all danger will be avoided. It is a very pure and effec-
